

STOCK ANALYSIS REPORT

Introduction

Stock analysis helps investors evaluate a company's financial health and future growth potential. This report analyzes three leading Indian companies—Reliance Industries Limited (RIL), Tata Consultancy Services (TCS), and HDFC Bank—based on their price trends, P/E ratio, market capitalization, recent news, and key performance indicators.

1. Reliance Industries Limited (RIL)

❖ Company Overview

Reliance Industries is one of India's largest conglomerates with businesses in energy, telecommunications, retail, and digital services.

❖ Key Statistics (June 2026)

- Market Capitalization: ₹17.47 Trillion
- P/E Ratio: 21.63
- Revenue (TTM): ₹10.57 Trillion
- EPS: ₹59.69

❖ Price Trend

Reliance stock has experienced volatility during the past year and is trading below its 52-week high. However, recent announcements regarding Jio Platforms and expansion plans have improved investor sentiment.

❖ Recent News

- Jio Platforms filed documents for a potential IPO, expected to be one of India's largest IPOs.
- Reliance announced ambitious expansion plans in consumer goods and renewable energy.

❖ Performance Indicators

- Revenue Growth: +9.6%
- Net Income Growth: +16%

- Strong presence across multiple sectors provides diversification.

❖ Analysis

Reliance remains a strong long-term investment due to its diversified business model and growth opportunities in telecom, retail, and renewable energy.

2. Tata Consultancy Services (TCS)

❖ Company Overview

TCS is India's largest IT services company and a global leader in consulting and digital transformation.

❖ Key Statistics (June 2026)

- Market Capitalization: ₹7.96 Trillion
- P/E Ratio: 16.17
- Revenue (TTM): ₹2.67 Trillion
- EPS: ₹136.01

❖ Price Trend

TCS has faced pressure due to slower global IT spending, causing a decline from previous highs. However, the company continues to maintain strong profitability.

❖ Recent News

- Continued investments in Artificial Intelligence and cloud services.
- Expansion of digital transformation projects across global markets.

❖ Performance Indicators

- Revenue Growth: +4.6%
- Net Income Growth: +1.4%
- High operating efficiency and stable cash flows.

❖ Analysis

TCS remains a fundamentally strong company with consistent earnings and strong market leadership in the IT sector.

3. HDFC Bank

❖ Company Overview

HDFC Bank is India's largest private-sector bank and a major player in retail and corporate banking.

❖ Key Statistics (June 2026)

- Market Capitalization: ₹11.50 Trillion
- P/E Ratio: 15.16
- Revenue (TTM): ₹2.83 Trillion
- EPS: ₹49.28

❖ Price Trend

The stock has traded below its 52-week high due to banking sector challenges but continues to attract investors because of strong fundamentals.

❖ Recent News

- Successfully raised $750 million through an offshore bond issue.
- Continued expansion in retail lending and digital banking services.

❖ Performance Indicators

- Revenue Growth: +3.8%
- Net Income Growth: +7.4%
- Strong customer base and healthy profitability.

❖ Analysis

HDFC Bank remains one of India's most reliable banking stocks due to its strong financial position and consistent earnings growth.

❖ Comparative Analysis

Metric | Reliance | TCS | HDFC Bank

Market Cap | ₹17.47 T | ₹7.96 T | ₹11.50 T

P/E Ratio | 21.63 | 16.17 | 15.16

Revenue Growth | 9.6% | 4.6% | 3.8%

Net Income Growth | 16% | 1.4% | 7.4%

Sector | Energy & Telecom | IT Services | Banking

❖ Conclusion

Based on the analysis, Reliance Industries demonstrates the strongest growth potential due to its diversified operations and expansion initiatives. TCS continues to be a stable investment with strong profitability and leadership in the IT industry.

HDFC Bank remains one of the most dependable banking institutions with steady earnings growth.

Investors should consider market conditions, financial performance, and risk tolerance before making investment decisions. A diversified portfolio containing stocks from different sectors can help reduce investment risk and improve long-term returns.